more modern ballpark with greater space and increased amenities. Renaissance Marble and Granite has contributed to this exquisite new stadium through its fabrication of luxury suites and other natural stone amenities.

The Yankees organization set out to provide their fans with all the conveniences of modernity, without disturbing a single piece of tradition. Renaissance has outfitted the stadium's suites with Guanabara Blue Granite counter tops and other natural stone accessories that reflect the style and class the Yankee's organization sought to instill in its new home.

"The Yankees have a long tradition of excellence," said Mark Hernandez, Founder and President of Renaissance Marble and Granite. "Renaissance is honored to have contributed to the Yankee's
