PRESS RELEASE

RENAISSANCE MARBLE AND GRANITE PROMOTES STEPHEN ARMANDI TO VICE PRESIDENT OF SALES

Mr. Armandi brings 18 years of experience in the stone industry

BLACKWOOD, NJ, April 21st, 2008 – Renaissance Marble and Granite, specializing in fabricating and installing natural stone for both residential and commercial clients since 1989, has promoted Stephen Armandi to Vice President of Sales. Armandi will head external sales and marketing for the Delaware Valley-area fabricator of natural stone.

Armandi has over 18 years experience in the stone industry, serving in a multitude of roles such as tile-setter, installer, sales and marketing, and most recently, project manager for both large corporate accounts and smaller residential jobs. For the past ten years, he has been working for Renaissance Marble and Granite.

"There are many factors that go into choosing the right product," said Armandi. "I very much look forward to helping current and future Renaissance clients make the best possible decision when it comes to choosing natural stone surfaces for their home or business."

Prior to joining Renaissance, Armandi spent approximately six years working with a large national stone fabricator, both as a tile installer and sales representative. Armandi now resides in Swedesboro, NJ, with his wife, Tina, and two children, Marissa and Stephen.
